2947 PUBLIC BODIES (Admission to meeting) Act 1960

To RESOLVE that public and press be excluded from the meeting whilst discussion takes place on the following items on the grounds that publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of business to be transacted in respect of consideration of potential land transfers.

(a) CEMETERY

Members had previously been circulated with a copy of the Town Clerks confidential report outlining the heads of terms received from the land agent, the content of which was NOTED.

Cllr Monks advised the items outlined within the correspondence did not reflect the discussions that had taken place during a site meeting.

Following due consideration members AGREED to communicate with the land owner expressing concern at the content of the correspondence received and respond to the agent similarly.

(b) BT PAYPHONE

Members had previously been circulated with a copy of the purchase agreement in respect of the kiosk in Clay Lane. RESOLVED to accept and sign the agreement as circulated.
